

Maya Gelernter Rotary Student of the Month

Maya Gelernter is the Rotary Student of the Month. She is an exceptional young woman who believes in working hard. She has shown this through loyalty and commitment to her school and community. Maya is warm and understanding; she is genuinely excited about learning and knows the importance of giving back to others.

Last summer Maya was a volunteer at LIJ Franklin Square Hospital. She realized through this experience that her goal was to help people and pursue her passion in the area of Health. Maya's college major will be Nutrition. She has also raised money for the Ohav Shalom School through various fund raising efforts and volunteered at blood drives.

For the past three years she has tutored third graders in Math and English. In school Maya has also been involved in a variety of school activities including Key Club, Relay for Life, SADD, Mock Trial and the Track Team.
